

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2462 - HB 2866

February 22, 2000

SUMMARY OF BILL: Prohibits an executive in any state agency or commission from serving as an administrative judge or hearing officer of such agency or commission or advising or assisting an administrative judge or hearing officer in the same proceeding.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumes an agency with the authority to use its own personnel as administrative judges and hearing officers will still be able to do so. This bill limits that authority only to the degree that it excludes persons in "executive" positions from serving as or assisting such administrative law judges and hearing officers.
